Discover the jury for the Her Art Prize, the internationally recognised prize for women artists at Art Paris 2026 in partnership with Marie Claire and Maison Boucheron.

A 28th Edition exploring the themes of Language and Care

Art Paris, the key spring event for modern and contemporary art, held from April 9 to 12, 2026, at the Grand Palais, together with Marie Claire, a leading magazine committed to defending the cause of women and Maison Boucheron are renewing the Her Art Prize for women artists and unveiling its 2026 jury.

This prize launched in 2025 rewards the career of a unique woman artist and a strong body of work that has contributed to moving the lines.

A prestigious jury comprising personalities from the arts and creative industries and presided over by actor and artist Louise Bourgoïn will come together to choose a winner from among the dozen or so finalists selected from among this year's exhibitors. The winner will receive the Her Art Prize and 30,000 euros in prize money presented by Maison Boucheron at Art Paris 2026 during a ceremony organised on Saturday 11 April. In addition, the winning artist will benefit from a domestic and international promotional campaign expertly organised by Marie Claire and Art Paris.

The Her Art Prize 2026 jury:

- Louise Bourgoïn, actor, artist and president of the jury
- Alice Diop, filmmaker
- Raphaël Haroche, author, singer, composer
- Erin Jeona Gilbert, curator
- Valentine Lecêtre, Art Paris CEO
- Galia Loupan, chief content officer, Marie Claire International
- Camille Morineau, director of AWARE and curator
- Katell Pouliquen, editor-in-chief, Marie Claire France
- Hélène Poulit-Duquesnes, Boucheron CEO
- Michèle Lamy, artist, entrepreneur, producer and performer

The selection of the Her Art Prize finalists is entrusted to art consultant, curator and Marie Claire contributor Marion Vignal, in collaboration with Art Paris fair director Guillaume Piens.
